

6516206544.txt

I find weather and traffic information on XM radio very helpful; instead of listening to the over commercialized local Detroit market radio stations that play the same songs over and over. You get a "traffic update" every hour if you can pay attention long enough between the commercials.
Please do not interfere with my right to information.

Thanks,

Rikc